

MIRANDO CON CALMA (LOOKING QUIETLY)

Book edit and possible exhibition.

Copyright permission request:

The undersigned grants permission to Rubén Nasville in collaboration with Estudio Ductus as promoters of the project “Looking quietly”, in Zaragoza (Spain) to use the material specified in this form, for the book edit and possible exhibition “Looking calmly” with the purpose of raising funds for those affected by Covid-19. The profits earned go to the Fundación de la Sociedad Española de Médicos Generales y de Familia (General and Family Physicians Spanish Foundation, or SEMG), who are collaborating with the collective of people affected long term by COVID19 Long COVID ACTS, within the project MARCO. Created for the care of people affected long term by the virus, its purpose is to be able to provide a more adequate medical care adapted to the needs of a population group that grows parallel to the increasing infection rate of SARS-CoV-2. For more information: <https://www.semg.es/index.php/noticias/item/631-noticia-20210120>.

Permission is granted regarding the following material:

Photograph or photographs on Instagram within the project “Looking quietly”.

This material may be used for the aforementioned book and exhibition, as well as for future revisions, derivatives or editions of the project previously mentioned. This includes all non-exclusive worldwide rights for all languages. It is understood that the granting of this permission will in no way restrict any re-editing of the material by the undersigned or persons authorized by the undersigned.

If specified here, on its publishing, the material will be accompanied by a copyright notice in the following terms: The rights of the photographs belong to their authors. They have given permission for their publication in this and subsequent editions in a disinterested manner.

All photographs will be published with the name of each author.